

Influential Lehigh Pilams

Arts

William Gottlieb ('38, deceased)

- Photographer and newspaper columnist best known for his work with musicians of the Golden Age of American Jazz

Dr. Richard S. Thall ('55, '87P, '15GP, '18GP)

- 1865 Society Donor
- Established the Richard and Alice Thall Student Scholarship Fund
- Helped grow the Lehigh University Art Gallery's collection from 2500 pieces to over 13,000. Many from the Thalls' personal collections.

Athletics

Vince Volpe ('80)

- Chairman, CEO, President and Principal of the LeHavre Athletic Club
- Former CEO and President of Dresser-Rand Group, Inc.

Doug Brugler ('74)

- Selected to join the USA Curling Men's Scotland Tour in 2022. His team helped team USA secure the Herries Maxwell Trophy.

Scott Helgans ('80, deceased)

- All-time great Lehigh Lacrosse player, holds NCAA points/game single season record
- He inspired his teammates and brothers to honor him by raising more than $200K for the Scott A. Helgans '80 Memorial Endowed Award

Business/Finance

Fredric Gould ('57)

- 1865 Society Donor
- Chairman for Rainbow Realty Group LLC
- President for REIT Management Corp

Jack Dreyfus ('34, deceased)

- Creator of the Dreyfus fund and its parent Dreyfus Corp. which became one of the nation's largest mutual funds
- He was driven to find a cure for clinical depression

Eugene Mercy, Jr. ('59, '98H)

- Lehigh Board of Trustee Emeritus, Former Vice-Chair
- Seeds of Change Emeritus Director
- Sue and Eugene Mercy, Jr. Foundation, President

Jordan Hitch ('88, '20P, '21P)

- Vice-Chair of Lehigh University Board of Trustees
- 1865 Society Donor
- Managing Partner for Double J Capital, angel investment firm

John Nuss ('74)

- Asa Packer Society Donor

Tom Johnston ('78)

- Tower Society Donor